TLC Alternative Assignments

For Your Information (FYI)

Participant will complete a 1 ½ - 2 page paper detailing the Teenage and Adult Driver Responsibility Act in place of the court offered FYI class. The information on the act can be found on the Department of Driver Services website; www.dds.ga.gov. This paper should succinctly describe the law and explain how it affects each age group differently, in your own words, do not cut and paste. Please be sure to include your traffic violation and how this law has or could potentially affect you and your driving privileges/ability or lack thereof.

Choice Equal Consequences (C=C)

Participant will complete a 1 ½ - 2 page paper thoroughly describing the decision making process. The paper should include a situation or an example of a decision you have made or need to make in the near future; include how this decision/choice will affect you or those around you (i.e., family, employment, or strangers) either positively or negatively. Examples of decision to include in your paper could be your choices to speed, to violate the HOV lane, or which college you plan to attend in the fall or why you choose the current college you attend.

Please ensure your papers are grammatically correct and there are no spelling errors. Paper should include 1 inch margins and be written in Times New Roman with 12" font double spaced. Also include a work cited page, this is mandatory.
